Project overview

The Peace & Security Monitor is analyzing peace processes, conflicts and factors of instability in various regions of the world. The Peace & Security Monitor gathers data and information from the international organisations, national ministries and other relevant official sources concerning the peace and security problems in the covered regions. It aims to provide a review of how political actors shape the current geopolitical situation, focusing on thematic issues such as peace processes, global trade, energy security or arms trade. The Peace & Security Monitor is released on a bi-monthly basis. Each issue closely follows the processes and provides an overview of the relevant events and analyzes their consequences. Series no. 1 focuses on the Mediterranean region while Series no. 2 analyses the developments in South East Europe and the Black Sea region.

Position overview

Start date: asap
Duration: 6 months
Commitment: 10–20h/week, flexible work hours
Location: remote

Responsibilities:

- Research and analyses under the supervision of Project Coordinator of the developments related to the covered region and/or selected State in the region
- Preparing and formatting a written output of the analyses for the bi-monthly publication
Main requirements:

- A good understanding of international law or international relations
- Education at the following level (Master, doctoral candidate or holder of a PhD. degree, suitably qualified Bachelors will be considered) in the field of international security, international law, international relations, peace and security studies or other relevant fields
- Subject matter expertise in the region (e.g. project or publication record)
- Experience with academic writing and/or blog posting
- Very good proficiency in English (C1), knowledge of Arabic or Turkish language would be an asset
- Attention to detail
- Ability to meet reasonable deadlines, to work in an international team and regularly communicate with Project Coordinator and other researchers

We offer

- Inspiring environment for young professionals’ personal and professional growth in the field of human rights protection, international justice and international peace and security
- Involvement in research, advocacy and public awareness-raisin projects and activities
- Participation in webinars, events and civil society networks on behalf of the association
- Flexible working time models

How to apply

Candidates should apply by sending a CV, a cover letter and a writing sample to project coordinators, Ms. Ambre Karoutsos at: a.karoutsos@peacehumanity.org and Mr. Filip Sandor at: f.sandor@peacehumanity.org.

Association overview

Platform for Peace and Humanity is an international civic association promoting peace and humanity. The association engages in research, advocacy and awareness-raising activities within its mandate and publishes Weekly News Recap and The Peace & Security Monitor. The association manages a Blog for contributions in the area of international law, human rights, international relations and international security and peacebuilding. The leading research project of the association focuses on the alleged international crimes committed in the context of the Situation in Ukraine at the International Criminal Court. The advocacy campaigns of the association focus on strengthening the legal framework on the human right to peace and crimes against peace, including strengthening the enforcement of the crime of aggression under the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

Learn more about Platform for Peace and Humanity