Association overview

Platform for Peace and Humanity is an international civic association which engages in 3 pillars of its work, i.e. research, advocacy and awareness-raising that are reflected in all its projects and activities within its mandate to promote peace and humanity by international law. The organization is further structured into regional programmes: South East Europe and Black Sea Region Programme, Mediterranean Programme, the newly formed Central Asia Programme, Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace Programme and Ukraine Programme.

Each of our regional programmes publish regional analysis in a bi-monthly Peace & Security Monitor publication. The organization also publishes Weekly News Recap and runs a Blog for internal and external contributions in the area of international law, human rights, international relations and international security and peacebuilding.

Position overview

The selected candidate will join the organization’s team of editors responsible for various outputs and content produced by the organization.

Start date: asap
Duration: min. 12 months
Commitment: min. 5–10 h/week, flexible work hours

Duties and responsibilities

- Edit, proofread and review the written content produced by Weekly News Recap writers to be published in the weekly release
- Edit, proofread and review the articles selected for the release in the Peace and Security Monitor publication (if required by the specific programme)
- In two review rounds, individually and in collaboration with other editors, review the blog submissions, communicate with authors, provide limited feedback and finalise the written submission when selected for the publication on the Blog
- Develop strategies for the Blog’s promotion and attractiveness
Qualifications

- passion and dedication to mission and values of the organization, result-driven commitment, ability to work in an international team and handle uncertain situation with flexibility
- Master’s degree in social sciences and good orientation in various fields of international law and/or other social sciences
- very good knowledge of English, native speaker proficiency in English is an asset
- experience in written text revision, correction, proofreading and editorial work
- excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- willingness to continuously learn and develop new skills

We offer

- inspiring environment for young professionals’ personal and professional growth in the field of human rights protection and international justice
- involvement in research, advocacy and public awareness-raising projects and activities
- participation in webinars, events and civil society networks on behalf of the association
- flexible working time models

How to apply

Candidates should apply by sending a CV and a cover letter in English to recruitment@peacehumanity.org.

Please indicate in the subject of the email the position you are applying for, i.e. Editor