Association overview

Platform for Peace and Humanity is an international civic association which engages in 3 pillars of its work, i.e. research, advocacy and awareness-raising that are reflected in all its projects and activities within its mandate to promote peace and humanity by international law. The organization is further structured into regional programmes: South East Europe and Black Sea Region Programme, Mediterranean Programme, the newly formed Central Asia Programme, Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace Programme and Ukraine Programme.

Each of our regional programmes publish regional analysis in a bi-monthly Peace & Security Monitor publication. The organization also publishes Weekly News Recap and runs a Blog for internal and external contributions in the area of international law, human rights, international relations and international security and peacebuilding.

Position overview

Director of Ukraine Programme is in charge of the projects and activities executed within the Programme. The selected candidate will be expected to develop the programme further, building upon the present portfolio of projects and activities. The Programme is presently finalizing its project focusing on the admissibility of criminal cases before the ICC and starts activities within the Project Sunflowers in Slovakia, Czechia and Spain (with more countries possibly covered). Further plans and programmatic developments will be revealed to selected candidates at the interview.

Start date: asap
Duration: min. 12 months
Commitment: min. 10 h/week, flexible work hours

Duties and responsibilities

- Manage the Programme, its projects and activities, incl. administration
- Assist with the execution of the Project Sunflowers in the selected States
- Supervise the Foresight Writers populating the Programme’s website with short summaries of the latest developments in Ukraine
- Promote the Programme online and offline
- Assist with the recruitment of researchers, analysts and caseworkers and with fundraising activities
Qualifications

- passion and dedication to mission and values of the organization, result-driven commitment, ability to work in an international team and handle uncertain situation with flexibility
- Master’s degree in international law and good knowledge of public international law, human rights and international criminal law
- good orientation in the latest developments related to the conflict in Ukraine
- good knowledge of English, knowledge of Ukrainian/Russian is an asset
- experience in coordinating small to medium sized groups
- willingness to continuously learn and develop new skills
- excellent communication and inter-personal skills, public speaking skills and ability to convey complex information and messages in a simple way and easily understood by target audiences
- willingness to continuously learn, develop new skills and travel for Programme-related events

We offer

- inspiring environment for young professionals’ personal and professional growth in the field of human rights protection and international justice
- involvement in research, advocacy and public awareness-raising projects and activities
- participation in webinars, events and civil society networks on behalf of the association
- flexible working time models

How to apply

Candidates should apply by sending a CV and a cover letter in English to recruitment@peacehumanity.org.

Please indicate in the subject of the email the position you are applying for, i.e. Director of Ukraine Programme.