

Weekly News Recap Writer (International Justice section)

Association overview

Platform for Peace and Humanity is an international civic association which engages in 3 pillars of its work, i.e. research, advocacy and awareness-raising that are reflected in all its projects and activities within its mandate to promote peace and humanity by international law. The organization is further structured into regional programmes: South East Europe and Black Sea Region Programme, Mediterranean Programme, the newly formed Central Asia Programme, Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace Programme and Ukraine Programme.

Each of our regional programmes publish regional analysis in a bi-monthly Peace & Security Monitor publication. The organization also publishes Weekly News Recap and runs a Blog for internal and external contributions in the area of international law, human rights, international relations and international security and peacebuilding.

Position overview

Weekly News Recap writers scan the latest developments in the area of international justice and international peace and security and prepare short summaries for the weekly release.

Start date: asap

Duration: min. 6 months

Commitment: min. 2-3 h/week, flexible work hours (writers switch in preparing the news on a bi-weekly basis)

Number of positions: 1-2

Duties and responsibilities

- Scanning the latest developments in the selected field (mainly but not limited to: websites of international courts and tribunals and media outlets reporting on international and domestic trials) and summarising the developments on a bi-weekly basis

Qualifications

- passion and dedication to mission and values of the organization, result-driven commitment, ability to work in an international team and handle uncertain situation with flexibility
- Master's degree in international law, human rights or other relevant social sciences (suitably qualified students can be considered)
- good orientation in the latest developments in the above fields
- good knowledge of English (min. C1)
- willingness to continuously learn and develop new skills
- strong time management skills and organised

We offer

- inspiring environment for young professionals' personal and professional growth in the field of human rights protection and international justice
- involvement in research, advocacy and public awareness-raising projects and activities
- participation in webinars, events and civil society networks on behalf of the association
- flexible working time models

How to apply

Candidates should apply by sending a CV and a cover letter in English to Ms Kelly Demjanick: k.demjanick@peacehumanity.org.

Deadline: 1 February 2023 (midnight CET)

Please indicate in the subject of the email the position you are applying for, i.e. Weekly News Recap writer.