

Coordinator of "Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace" Programme

Association overview

---

Platform for Peace and Humanity is an international civic association which engages in 3 pillars of its work, i.e. research, advocacy and awareness-raising that are reflected in all its projects and activities within its mandate to promote peace and humanity by international law. The organization is further structured into regional programmes: South East Europe and Black Sea Region Programme, Mediterranean Programme, the newly formed Central Asia Programme, Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace Programme and Ukraine Programme.

Each of our regional programmes publish regional analysis in a bi-monthly Peace & Security Monitor publication. The organization also publishes Weekly News Recap and runs a Blog for internal and external contributions in the area of international law, human rights, international relations and international security and peacebuilding.

Position overview

---

The selected candidate will join the Convenor of the Global Coalition of Youth Ambassadors and the present Coordinator in managing the global advocacy programme on the right to peace and the network of young leaders in it known as the Global Coalition of Youth Ambassadors for the Right to Peace.

Deadline for applications: 28 May 2023

Start date: asap

Duration: min. 12 months

Commitment: min. 10 h/week, flexible work hours

Duties and responsibilities

---

- Coordination of national campaigns of Youth Ambassadors in the particular geographical region
- Coordination and preparation of offline and online regional and international campaigns in the programme and various events within the advocacy mission of the programme
- Inter-disciplinary research including but not limited to public international law, human rights, international criminal law
- promotion of the programme including the preparation of various audio-visual content
- engaging in fundraising activities for the programme

Qualifications

---

- passion and dedication to mission and values of the organization, result-driven commitment, ability to work in an international team and handle uncertain situation with flexibility
- Master's degree in international law and good knowledge of public international law, human rights and international criminal law
- fluency in English, knowledge of other languages is an advantage
- experience in coordinating small to medium sized groups
- excellent communication and inter-personal skills, public speaking skills and ability to convey complex information and messages in a simple way and easily understood by target audiences
- willingness to continuously learn, develop new skills and travel for programme-related events

We offer

---

- inspiring environment for young professionals' personal and professional growth in the field of human rights protection and international justice
- involvement in research, advocacy and public awareness-raising projects and activities
- participation in webinars, events and civil society networks on behalf of the association
- flexible working time models

How to apply

---

Candidates should apply by sending a CV and a cover letter in English to recruitment@peacehumanity.org.

Please indicate in the subject of the email the position you are applying for, i.e. Coordinator of "Towards the Enforcement of the Right to Peace" Programme.